

Great Leaders are Great Coaches with Kim Ades

“Great Leaders are Great Coaches” is a skills-based, experiential workshop that focuses on equipping participants with core coaching skills, perspectives and behaviors to leverage the most important asset inside any organization – the people. This workshop will be beneficial for leaders who want to hone their coaching skills in order to powerfully influence the members of their own team as well as for those who are mentors and want to learn how to provide valuable guidance to their mentees.

In this workshop, participants will:

1. Discover the single most important factor that leads to success.
2. Learn to quickly identify what differentiates extraordinary performers and others.
3. Understand what it takes to develop and leverage the strengths of employees, mentees and teams.
4. Become crystal clear about their role and responsibilities as a mentor, leader and coach.
5. Take away a practical and poignant step by step coaching strategy to implement with employees and mentees.
6. Explore and experience strategic techniques to challenge mentees and employees in order to drive them to higher levels of performance.
7. Be energized with new perspectives on leadership and adopt them into their own environments in order to drive significant change.
