

JULIE KANTOR, PhD

Presenter: Julie Kantor is an 'all-in' roll-up your sleeves social impact leader. Whether in a boardroom with executives or working with collaborative teams, Julie instills excitement, inspires commitment, & demonstrates an unwavering drive to succeed. Twomentor is her 5th start-up (recently acquired by Change 4 Growth) and builds on 24 years in building workforce dev. movements. The team works with clients intent to build mentoring + sponsorship cultures through Mentoring-in-a-Box strategies, globally runs dynamic Mentor Road Trip Flash Mentoring, Keynotes

As a sought-after keynote speaker, conference facilitator & connector, Julie is well networked to the national community of top business, academic, non-profit, & government leaders. She has worked & consulted w/ clients such as Cisco, American University, Samsung, Tata (TCS), Intel, Sony, BP, Stratasys, Federal Reserve Bank, World Bank Group, Anthem, and more. Revenue track record of over 24 million. Co-Chair of Leadership Greater Washington's Signature Program '17. Recent keynotes and engagements: HR Alliance, Anthem Government, Watermark Exec. Women's Conf, Women in Technology (WIT), ASAE, Federal Reserve, Super Women of IBM. See Julie's TEDx style presentation for the United Nations <https://youtu.be/AmqDyey2M20>

Honored by The White House for her 20-year career entrepreneurship education as past Executive Director of Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship & SmartCEO ("15 Leaders We Admire") & Brava Hall of Fame for Management. Julie has been featured on CNN.com, Washington Post, Washington Business Journal, Chronicle of Philanthropy, Forbes.com, and AT&T Women Who Inspire.

Author of "I Said Yes: Youth Entrepreneurship in America's Schools", "Million Women Mentors & BP's Mentor Action Guide", "The Mentor Road Trip™" "Youth Entrepreneurship in America" Aspen Institute. Huff Post Contributor (since '12) contact jkantor@change4growth.com